This Gratitude Report is dedicated to survivors of homicide victims and all the loved ones who have died this past year.

About the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute

OUR MISSION: To serve as a Center of Healing, Teaching and Learning for families and communities impacted by murder, trauma, grief and loss.

OUR BELIEF: Families impacted by murder deserve to be treated with dignity and compassion, regardless of the circumstances.

OUR VISION: To create and sustain an environment where all families can live in peace and all people are valued.

OUR PRINCIPLES: Love, Unity, Faith, Hope, Courage, Justice and Forgiveness.

OUR MODEL: Is grounded in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's social-ecological framework that interventions are needed at multiple levels in order to interrupt cycles of violence. The LDBPI's framework starts with families and radiates out to communities and society.

Note From the President and CEO

Dear Friends of Peace,

This past year, I focused on celebrating. The work of responding to homicide is heavy and oftentimes overshadows the transformative work that the survivor community, the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute (LDBPI) staff, community members and allies are doing.

There is so much to celebrate, and through your support, activism and engagement, we have been able to accomplish a great deal. When I started this work 28 years ago, I could never have imagined I would be in the position we are in today, focused on long-term sustainability to become the Center of Healing, Teaching and Learning.

Our investment in the survivor community has always been our primary focus. After pausing our Inform, Influence and Impact Grant in 2020, we were excited to reintroduce the program and provide families with funds to develop their own initiatives. We also increased our capacity to serve families equitably with six new staff members, expanding our team to 31. Could you imagine, a little over a decade ago there were only six of us.

With this growth, we made vital and thoughtful changes to our organizational structure by appointing Alexandra Chéry-Dorrelus and Rachel Rodrigues as Co-Executive Directors that will help position me to be more present in shifting narratives around homicide and transferring my knowledge and experience nationally.

In 2022, our priority is to continue our goals to deliver essential services in the aftermath of a homicide, expand our reach, share our knowledge and continue to invest in the sustainability of the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute. I am grateful for the support of the Board of Directors, commitment of the staff, volunteers and peace fellows, and the investment of our supporters.

As my shero Dr. Deborah Prothrow-Stith states, "Violence is not the problem of one neighborhood or group, and the response and solutions are not the responsibility of one sector of the community or of one agency, professional group or business. Coming together and owning this problem and the solutions are central." Thank you for taking part in that shared responsibility.

In Peace and in Service,

Chaplain Clementina M. Chéry
President & CEO

Celebration of the Board of Directors

We thank you for your commitment, your leadership and your years of dedication.

Anthony (Ant) Thomas — After leaving the LDBPI as the Development Coordinator, Ant joined the board in 2019. He brings a unique set of skills and has assisted us in understanding pressure that the staff face and how to best support them. As an Associate with Fidelity Investments, an artist mentor and social influencer, Ant uses his connections to support the fundraising goals at the LDBPI and other community-based nonprofits. In addition, Ant's experience and background helped guide the Finance and Fundraising Committee.

Claudette Jones — In 2019, we welcomed Claudette to the board. Claudette's background of working in the Boston Public Schools system for over 20 years and being a survivor of a homicide victim helped us to understand the impact of murder on siblings and how adults can help them find their own voice. As the Board Clerk, her attention to detail, passion and optimism always ensures that we stay focused, increase our outreach and create processes that will help committees as well as the LDBPI staff exceed their goals.

Constance (Connie) Afshar — Connie is our “rock” on the board. Her steadfastness, commitment and experience has helped the LDBPI grow during the past 17 years. Connie joined the board in 2005 and has served in many roles including her most recent as the Chair of the Interfaith Committee. In addition to being a successful small-business owner, Connie is also a member of the Second Congregational Church of Cohasset. Our board has benefited greatly from her business experience and commitment to gathering leaders in religious organizations together to enhance the work of the LDBPI.

C. Monroe Chase — Gentle, kind, tenacious and focused on results are only a few of the words to describe Monroe and the difference he has made on the board since 2014. As a survivor of a homicide victim and as a successful business professional in the banking and insurance industry, Monroe brings us a unique parental perspective along with a strong understanding of fundraising and finance. His background and passion for the LDBPI have made him a vital addition to the Fundraising and Finance Committee. Monroe is the best friend everyone should have, and we are grateful that he is a part of the LDBPI family!

Note From the Board of Directors

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your ongoing support of the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute. Despite the uncertainty in the world this past year, you continued to make an indelible difference in the lives of survivors and ensure that they knew they were not alone.

We are truly humbled by your support and we thank you for your ongoing commitment.

We came together in January 2021 focused on restructuring the way the board provided support to the LDBPI and ended the year focusing on the next chapter. Through reaching out and welcoming new committee members, meeting with team members in each department and collaborating on the effective transition of the new co-leadership team and new staff, we feel as though we have prepared the LDBPI for the next five years.

Thanks to you, the 2021 End of Year Campaign brought in $245,840.30. During our 25th Annual Mother's Day Walk for Peace, the LDBPI raised $571,604.92. Because of your commitment to ensuring that survivors of murder, trauma, grief and loss do not suffer in silence, 2021 was our largest fundraising year.

As 2021 comes to a close, we are reflecting on our time on the board and how far the LDBPI has come in the past 27 years. Your unwavering support gave us so much to be grateful for, and we were able to accomplish this in partnership with the staff, volunteers and allies.

In Gratitude,

Anthony Thomas

Survivor Outreach Services (SOS)

Provides emotional and practical support for families in the first 24 to 72 hours after a homicide happens using The Survivors' Burial and Resource Guide: A Step-by-Step Workbook for Regaining Control and providing advocacy and referral support services.

In 2021:

- 53 new families met with our Survivor Support Coordinators in the aftermath of a homicide.
- 362 survivors received ongoing case management and referrals to services needed upon request.
- 8 survivors relocated into temporary and permanent housing.
- Coordinators attended court 24 times as a support to survivors
- 47 Peace Play in Urban Settings sessions were held for survivors.
- 144 survivors participated in Peace Play in Urban Settings sessions.
- 68 copies of The Survivors' Burial and Resource Guide: A Step-by-Step Workbook for Regaining Control were given out to survivors.
- 130 copies of Always in My Heart: An Activity Book for Grieving Children were given to survivor families with children.
- 6,625 funeral programs were donated to survivors to memorialize their loved ones during a funeral.
- 2,650 memorial buttons were donated to pay tribute to a homicide victim.
- 384 memorial cards were sent out to acknowledge birthday and anniversary dates of murdered loved ones.
- 17 personalized wellness check-in calls were made to survivor families each quarter- a total of 68 wellness calls for the year

SOS Financial Support in 2021:

Live in Peace Fund: $149,409 supported survivors with practical financial needs.

Rest in Peace Fund: $108,416 supported survivors with the burial of a loved one.

LOVE: “[The LDBPI] is a loving community who genuinely cares about people getting the support, guidance and help during and [after] the loss of a loved one.”

UNITY: “[The LDBPI] mobilizes people to the need to stop the violence and created a support network.”

FAITH: “[The LDBPI] provided moral, spiritual and financial support along with bringing mothers/families together through workshops and other activities that help during the process of grieving your loved one/ones.”

Quotes from survivors from 2021 survey:

These are quotes from survivors of homicide victims who have received services from the LDBPI after a homicide has occurred. They will remain anonymous.

COURAGE: “[The LDBPI] gives peace to those who think no one cares about them and their happiness, feeling the courage to have hope that I won’t always be sad.”

HOPE: “[The LDBPI] provides hope, faith, help, peace and love.”

JUSTICE: “[The LDBPI] advocates for people whose voices and concerns have been silenced.”

FORGIVENESS: “[The LDBPI] is good at being an example of forgiveness.”

Healing Support Services

“The ties that bind us together are through the 7 Principles of Peace held up in our support groups. We don’t all go through the process of healing the same way and at the same time. The emotional support, validation and connection that groups give are a foundation that there can be healing just for today or just for a moment in time.”
— Hymn, “Blest Be the Tie That Binds”

In 2021, 92 individuals attended healing groups and workshops.

Healing and Recovery: A support group for anyone grieving the loss of a loved one by murder, overdose or suicide who may also need support with addiction and recovery.

Wholistic Healing: A workshop series that provides a holistic approach to healing. Rather than focusing on illness or specific parts of the body, this ancient approach to health considers the whole person and how they interact with their environment. It emphasizes the connection of mind, body and spirit. Participants learn self-care exercises, DIY-healing remedies, art, music therapy and more.

We’re Still Here, Writing Workshops: A five-week life-writing project guided by survivor and best-selling author Michael Patrick MacDonald, using his curriculum The Rest of the Story. The workshops empower survivors to rewrite the narrative about themselves and their loved ones.

Survivors Leadership Academy: An educational opportunity to empower survivors of homicide victims to effectively navigate life after the murder of a loved one. This includes: understanding the complexities of the criminal justice system, transforming their pain into social action, rebuilding community, and participating fully in the healing and reconciliation process.

Girls Leadership Academy: A quest to help girls ages 10-22 experiencing or healing from trauma in their lives build a toolbox of skills to promote leadership and confidence. GLA utilizes collaborative activities that aim to strengthen teamwork and leadership abilities.

Mindfulness: An eight-week course for survivors to develop and apply mindfulness practices as a means to cultivate stress reduction, self-awareness and peace in their lives.

Healing and Recovery Awards Dinner:

Over the years, the members of the Healing and Recovery Support Group have built a strong bond in-person and now virtually — sharing their stories, uplifting one another, crying, laughing and training together. While virtual, the group missed the feeling of warm hugs and gentle touches on the back from friends during difficult moments.

In December, we hosted our first in-person event since the pandemic, an award dinner to acknowledge the great work of the members in completing the Court Proceedings Leadership Academy and Peace Play in Urban Settings Training and to congratulate the recipients of the LDBPI Inform, Influence and Impact Grant. It was a joyous experience as some of us met for the very first time in person to celebrate the work members are doing to honor the lives of their loved ones and turn their pain into purpose and action!

Community Reentry Services Program (CRSP)

A comprehensive three-year program designed to help men in Massachusetts correctional facilities make the transition from incarceration back to the community. The goal of the program is to help them cultivate a new mind-set as they transition to a new lifestyle, to reunite them with their family as they heal together, and to find meaningful careers and become an active member of their community.

In 2021, the year of expansion!

- 3 mentors were added to the program.
- 2 new additions joined the team.
- The program received funding from the Cummings Foundation.
- 9 men participated in CRSP

Highlights from 2021!

- 1 participant graduated from Massasoit Community College with a degree in Diesel Technology
- 2 students were enrolled in New England Culinary Arts Training.
- All participants are currently employed.

Training and Education

In 2021, 660 people were trained through virtual platforms and in person. Training in 2021 took place in person and virtually in Massachusetts, Michigan and Florida. The trainings are described below.

Leadership Academy Pilot for Court Proceedings Workbook

A workshop series focusing on how to navigate the criminal justice system, access necessary services, advocate for oneself and the community, and participate in the healing, accountability and reconciliation process.

Best Practices for Serving Survivors of Homicide Victims

Provides training, tools, technical assistance and professional development to providers and institutional stakeholders so they can serve and advocate for families impacted by murder equitably and effectively.

I Am: The Assets of My Community

A training focused on helping participants hone in on their own potential impact on their community. This training started as a collection of poems written by the participants of Peace from Within at the Plymouth County Correctional Facility.

The Survivors' Court Preparation and Resource Guide: A Step-by-Step Workbook for Regaining Control

A training for survivors and providers on how to prepare and support a survivor through the legal system and the trial process.

Peace Play in Urban Settings

A training focused on the healing technique for individuals, families and community groups adopted from Sandtray Wordplay. This is a modality that invites participants to create a concrete world using sand and figures that reflects the feelings and emotions that they may not have the language for.

In 2021, 160 PeaceZone curriculum books were given out to teachers, community-based organizations, parents and community members.

Advocacy and Awareness

Serving Survivors of Homicide Victims Providers Network

A professional network for providers to build relationships, practice self-care, and increase capacity to deliver coordinated, consistent and compassionate services when a homicide happens.

In 2021:

- 20 agencies and 25 providers attended monthly virtual Providers Network meetings.

Massachusetts Survivors of Homicide Victims Network

Statewide network of survivors working together to impact, inform and influence public policy.

In 2021:

- 200+ members participated in the Survivors of Homicide Victims Network.
- 17 survivors attended Survivors of Homicide Victims Network monthly meetings.

Inform, Influence and Impact Grant:

The Inform, Influence, and Impact Grant is given to individuals who are survivors of homicide victims or organizations led by survivors of homicide victims who are running direct service programs, holding awareness-raising events, offering leadership development opportunities to engage fellow survivors in peacemaking, coordinating trainings, and leading advocacy work on issues facing families impacted by murder.

- 12 grants for the year
- 6 sponsorships
- 12 survivor-led events

Chauvin Trial Debrief and Healing Space:

To the survivor community, we see you, we hear you, and we feel with you the re-traumatization that occurs as we all watch this play out. It is important to take the space you need to process, feel and heal. You are not alone, and the LDBPI is here and will continue to serve as a refuge and a Center of Healing, Teaching and Learning for families and communities impacted.

25th Annual Mother's Day Walk for Peace

The Mother's Day Walk for Peace is a celebration of our potential to create more peaceful communities. The walk started in 1996 so that mothers of murdered children could receive support and love from their neighbors, and it continues to be a powerful way to honor our loved ones who have died and embrace our shared responsibility to create more peaceful communities.

Every year, families from across the state and region unite to walk on Mother's Day. It is our largest fundraising event. This past year, thanks to you, we were able to host this event virtually, raising $571,564.92 and reaching 10,313 viewers.

Public Statement

Our hearts are heavy as we remember the lives of our loved ones stolen by homicide in 2021. All of us at the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute extend our deepest condolences to the family and friends of the victims and recognize that every act of violence causes harm to the wider community. Every homicide leaves behind survivors whose pain and grief endures long after the world has moved on. For every homicide victim, there are at least 10 immediate family members impacted. Even as homicide rates reportedly decline locally, the survivor rate increases daily.

We grieve with families dealing with an unimaginable sense of loss. And we stand ready to guide families in the right direction for services to help bury their loved ones with dignity and respect. If you have experienced the murder of a loved one, you deserve to be supported with dignity and compassion, regardless of the circumstances.

Looking forward: What can you expect in 2022?

In a new three-year partnership, Emerson College's Engagement Lab, the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute and the Center for Gun Violence Prevention at Massachusetts General Hospital have launched a Boston-based collaboration to transform narratives of gun violence in our city. Geared toward creating a cycle of change, the Transforming Narratives of Gun Violence partnership explores the incomplete narratives around the crisis and models a new approach of healing through media, art and communication while centering on the communities in Boston most impacted.

A series of concentric yellow circles of varying radii, centered on the left side of the slide, creating a ripple effect.
